

5280MEDICARE.COM

Medicare Beginners Checklist (Part 1 of 2)

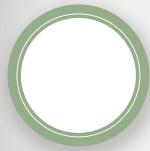

Learn about the Medicare Parts

Find out if you need Medicare Part A and/or B
(Original Medicare) at age 65

Choose your preferred enrollment option
(online, in person, phone)

Enroll in Medicare Parts A and B

Explore Medicare Insurance coverage
(Cover your Medicare Part A and B gaps*)

5280MEDICARE.COM

Medicare Beginners Checklist (Part 2 of 2)

Decide which Medicare Insurance plan is best for you
(Medical Coverage, Costs, Eligibility, Doctor Access, Medications, Extra Benefits)

Enroll in the Medicare Insurance plan that suits your specific needs

Discover additional benefits available to you and find out how to use them****

Review your plan annually to ensure it continues to serve your needs

Find pleasure in knowing you did everything necessary to obtain the best plan possible

5280MEDICARE.COM

* Medicare Parts A and B include deductibles, co-pays and coinsurance, potentially leading to devastating costs without additional Medicare insurance coverage. You're responsible for 20% of the cost of Part B doctor and medical services.

** Dental, vision, hearing, over-the-counter allowances, gym memberships, and more are among the additional benefits offered by some insurers. To get coverage and discounts, you will typically need to sign up online for these benefits.